Blu enters by way of a tunnel.

BLU
CrimeBase, it's me: DareDoll Blu.
I've just broken into the old,
abandoned magic factory.

CRIMEBASE
Excellent. Did you bring your new bug?

BLU (unzipping her boot
to pull out the "device")
Yes.

CRIMEBASE
Double excellent!

BLU
What should I do with it?

CRIMEBASE
Find the center of the Peeper Brothers' electrical system and stick it there. We'll do the rest.

BLU
Roger that, CrimeBase. Will do.

Blu walks the maze and hides the "bug" somewhere that requires a ladder to reach it.

She steps down and finds that her boots are stuck to the floor! A mysterious figure in a robe/hood enters and begins to taunt her. Which DareDoll is underneath this guise?

THE HOOD
You can struggle all you want, DareDoll Blu, but you'll still be stuck like a fly to a windshield without some anti-stick spray underneath your boots. Ha ha ha ha!

The Hood backs up a wheelbarrow behind Blu and then sprays her in the face.

THE HOOD
And now to freshen you up just a little bit. Ha ha ha ha. That oughta hold your hair in place!

Blu passes out, falling backwards into the wheelbarrow. (The Hood must unzip her from her boots, of course, because they are still stuck to the floor!)

Blu is conveyed, bootless, in a wheelbarrow.

She wakes up tied to train tracks. The Hood tickle-tortures her with a feather. Blu laughs convulsively.

BLU

Who are you beneath that hood? Lila?
Minx? Jinx?

THE HOOD

Wouldn't you like to know, DareDoll Blu! Let's just say I'm a DareDoll who got a little bit tired of the pay incentive program, so I've decided to take it all!

BLU

I'll never give up the DareDoll activation code.

THE HOOD

Well, we didn't expect you to. But we do expect you to get a rise out of this very low voltage. It will make your body tingle all over....

The Hood zaps her with jumper cables. Blu passes out.

Blu wakes up tied to the VertigoRound. The Hood sets her to spinning. What a stomach churner!
